

What can EMDA's NGO-desk do for your organisation?

Please find below some examples that make clear what EMDA could do for you, or how EMDA could help you and your partner organisation.

- Last year 10 countries joint the EU. Many Dutch organisations who have contact with these countries do have difficulties in obtaining subsidies for their activities. EMDA helps these organisations to unite and to find joint support.
- Dutch organisations who have connections with Romania and Bulgaria will have problems in 2007 in getting external funding. EMDA helps these organisations in their mutual strengthening.
- EMDA attends a number of municipality organisations to make contact with NGO's and their counterparts in Moldova, Georgia en Latvia

EMDA

The foundation for European Development Assistance (EMDA) has as its main goal to support NGO's, local Governments and SME's in the EU associated developing countries (ACP) and in countries in transition in their capacity building and sustainable development.

Networking is an important resource to achieve all this. EMDA puts her participation in Networks, as the NGO-EG Network, at the disposal to support integrated and participated programmes from NGO's in developing countries and in CEE.

EMDA has its own independent offices in Latvia, Romania and India.

EMDA NGO-desk

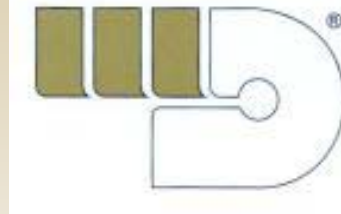

The task of EMDA's NGO-desk EMDA is to support NGO's –and also CSO's– from the developing countries and the countries in transition on the one side in their development and capacity building and on the other side in their aim to small scale economical and structural sustainable development. The formulated Millennium Goals are an important guide.

De NGO-desk offers the following support:

- Donor mediation
- Project formulation
- Feasibility studies
- Project preparation
- Monitoring en reporting during implementation and after winding up.
- Marketing support
- Expert trainers for workshops, etc
- Relevant professional knowledge in environment , water management, youth welfare and food.

Projects from the past:

- Beekeeping project in Kenya.
- Humanitarian assistance in Mozambique.
- Various projects in Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Romania.
- Various studies en workshops in Eastern Europe.
- Support to local CSO's

EMDA and Eastern Europe

EMDA aims through its activities to improve the livelihood of the people in Eastern Europe. We actively support projects of NGO's and CSO's by initiating ideas, by pro active guidance, as well as by internal capacity building.

We regularly look for cooperation with the EU, with DGIS (Dutch International Cooperation), with co-finance organisations, as well as with other NGO's and syndicates.

Thanks to this devotion of energy a participative implementation of the projects in all aspects is possible, with special emphasis to ongoing professionalisation and mutual independency.

EMDA is reviewed as a Non-Profit organisation by the Dutch Charity Board (CBF): donations of privates and of business fully benefits the projects.
